

Reference Form for Junior Scientist Membership Applicants

_____ is applying for Junior Scientist membership status in the Society of NeuroInterventional Surgery and has listed you as a Training Program Director Reference.

Junior Scientist Members in the Society of NeuroInterventional Surgery are required to:

- Be in training in any field of science or engineering with a focus on, and actively performing research in, or directly related to, neurointerventional surgery;
- Have a letter of reference from their Training Program Director.

Training Program Director Questionnaire

1. How long have you known the applicant? _____

2. Is the applicant a current neurointerventional research student or fellow under your direction? _____

3. Is the applicant actively performing research in neurointerventional surgery under your direction? _____

Do you feel that the applicant is ACCEPTABLE UNACCEPTABLE as a Junior Member of SNIS?

Comments: _____

Print Name

Signature

Date